INTERIM RESULTS ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED 30 JUNE 2011

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET ("GEM") OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this announcement, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this announcement.

This announcement, for which the directors of Advanced Card Systems Holdings Limited (the "Company") collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the GEM of the Stock Exchange for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that to the best of their knowledge and belief the information contained in this announcement is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this announcement misleading.

NOTES ON THE INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The interim financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), which is also the functional currency of the Company.

The interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard ("HKAS") 34 "Interim Financial Reporting" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. The interim financial statements also include the applicable disclosure requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "GEM Listing Rules").

The preparation of the interim financial statements in conformity with HKAS 34 requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses on a year to date basis. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The accounting policies adopted in the 2010 annual financial statements have been consistently applied to these financial statements except that in the current period, the Group has applied for the first time certain new standards, amendments and interpretations (the "new HKFRSs") issued by the HKICPA, which are relevant to and effective for the Group's financial statements for the annual period beginning on 1 January 2011. The adoption of the new HKFRSs had no material impact on how the results and financial position for the current and prior periods have been prepared and presented.

The interim financial statements are unaudited but have been reviewed by the audit committee of the Company. The financial statements for the six months ended 30 June 2011 were approved for issue by the board of directors on 5 August 2011.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following discussion and analysis should be read alongside with the unaudited consolidated financial results of the Group (thereafter referred to as "ACS" or the "Group") for the six month period ended 30 June 2011.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The sales revenue increased by 15% in the first half year of 2011 to HK$50.1 million from HK$43.4 million in the first half year of 2010.

The gross profit increased by only 4% to HK$24.6 million owing to reduced gross profit margin in the first half of 2011 at 49% compared with 54% in the first half of last year. The lower gross profit margin was owing to a different product mix in the sales and did not represent a trend in reduction of gross profit margin. Expenses increased by 13% primarily owing to increase in headcount which was 252 at 30 June 2011 compared with 202 at 30 June 2010. The Group's total percentage increase in expenses was less than the percentage increase in headcount primarily owing to the majority of staff being employed in China and Manila rather than in Hong Kong, where average salaries are higher.

The higher total expenses drove the profit before income tax down to HK$510 thousands and the net profit after tax to HK$323 thousands in the first half year of 2011.

	Six month

Income tax expense	(187)	(504)	-63%
Profit for the period	323	1,854	-83%

The sales revenue increased by 45% in the second quarter of 2011 to HK$29.3 million from HK$20.2 million in the second quarter of 2010. The increase was 15% to HK$50.1 million in the first half year of 2011 from HK$43.4 million in the same period last year. This shows that the second quarter of 2011 recorded a 41% growth in sales revenue to HK$29.3 million from HK$20.8 million (HK$50.1 million minus HK$29.3 million) in the first quarter of 2011.

There are often fluctuations in sales in the different regions in the world as major projects requiring ACS products may turn into reality in one region rather than another during a certain period of time. Relatively big increases in sales were recorded in Europe and Middle East and Africa but drops were seen in The Americas and Asia Pacific regions as the following chart shows. With 50% growth in sales revenue in Europe in the first half of 2011, this region accounted for 54% of the total sales in this period up from 42% in the first half year of 2010.

DIVIDEND

The Board does not declare an interim dividend in respect of the six months ended 30 June 2011. The declaration, payment, and amount of future dividends will be decided by the Board and will depend upon, among other things, the Group's results of operations, capital requirements, cash flows, general financial conditions, and such other factors as the Board may consider important.

BUSINESS REVIEW

ACS faced challenges in the production of more complex smart card products being launched to the market, such as a bus validator, a sophisticated payment terminal mounted on a bus to read and write on the contactless smart card held by a passenger. The challenges peaked in the quarter ended 31 March 2011. Our sales were affected in that quarter.

The production challenges that a complex product like an ACR320 bus validator poses include: (1) purchases of a big variety of components at small quantities during pilot production, (2) more complex printed circuit boards with fully loaded components, and (3) a more sophisticated range of tests needed to be run to ensure quality. ACS is in the process of evaluating contract manufacturers in order to identify new ones capable of and interested in producing such complex products in small quantities to start with, and with a potential to produce in bigger volumes. Progress was made in the second quarter.

In the last years, ACS invested heavily into developing several complex products using 32-bit micro-processors. In particular, ACS engaged strong teams of talented engineers to design and customize a bus validator for a world's leading provider of automatic fare collection solutions. In this second quarter, this global company placed its first commercial order of these customized bus validators at a value over HK$10 million, for delivery in the fourth quarter of this year. Subsequent orders are being expected. ACS is procuring necessary components, gearing for the production, testing tools, and working with a contract manufacturer to do pilot production to prepare for production and delivery on a commercial scale later in the year.

PROSPECTS

The challenges in raw material procurement, manufacturing and logistics owing to more complex products affected ACS's performance in the first half year of 2011, particularly the first quarter. The management believes that such issues can be resolved gradually in the second half year of 2011 by the expanded and strengthened staff in these job duties and by an improved information technology system.

Our complex products are bringing us bigger orders in terms of dollar revenue, as the unit price of such products is many times that of a basic PC-linked smart card reader product, which still accounts for a significant percentage of the business of ACS. The management expects a satisfactory performance in the latter half of 2011 and bigger growths in 2012 and 2013.
